
TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	10
FOREWORD	11
INTRODUCTION	14
SPRING
1. Spring Wildflowers
Warm-blooded” and Short-lived Plants	22
2. Tigers in the Night and
Other Cold-blooded, Wet-skinned Animals	27
Sidebar: The Red-backed Salamander
3. Plovers, Terns, Skimmers	34
Sidebar: The Long Island Colonial Waterbird Association
4. Flight of the Woodcock
or Things that Go “ Peent ” in the Night	40
5. The Osprey’s Return	43
Sidebar: The Bald Eagle
6. The Run of the Alewife	49
Sidebar: Shadbush in Flower, Juneberry in Fruit
7. Our Living Fossil: the Horseshoe Crab	53
Sidebar: Mole Crabs
8. Blueberries: Blue Tongues for Everyone	60
9. Wading Birds	66
10. Songbird Migration	73
11. Lick of Flame: Fire in the Long Island Forest	80
12. Long Island’s Prairie: the Hempstead Plains	85

SUMMER

13. Stinky's Return: The Striped Skunk on Long Island	92
14. A Swift and a Swallow	98
15. The Prickly Pear: Long Island's Native Cactus	105
Sidebar: Other Seaside Plants
16. Orchids: Variation on a Theme	110
17. Dead Man's Fingers and Other Parasites	115
18. Milkweeds	118
Sidebar: An Appreciation of Pollinating Insects
19. "Please Pass the Peas"	125
20. Our Underwater Meadows: Eelgrass on Long Island	128
Sidebar: Seahorses
21. Atlantic White Cedar and Sweet Bay Magnolia	133
22. Plants that Eat Animals	138
Sidebar: Coastal Plain Pondshores
23. A Focus on Ferns	143
24. The Waters around Us:
Whales and Other Marine Animals	152
25. Diamondback Terrapins	157

AUTUMN

26. The Tropical Connection:
Tropical Fish in Long Island's Waters	166
27. Southbound Shorebirds	171
Sidebar: The "Grasspipers"
28. Hawks Above the Dunes	177
Sidebar: Other Hawk-watching Sites
29. Other Animals Migratory	183
Sidebar: The Common Nighthawk
30. Flight of the Buck Moth	187
Sidebar: Dwarf Pine Plains
31. Witch Hazel: Flowers at Thanksgiving	192
32. They Called it Red Gold: Cranberries	195
33. Bambi in Suburbia: the White-tailed Deer	200
34. Cormorants	204
35. Woolly Bears: Autumn's Caterpillars	207

W I N T E R

36. Bobbing Birds, Swimming Seals:
Wildlife at Montauk Point	212
37. Bottoms Up! Winter Ducks	218
Sidebar: Buy a Stamp, Protect a Duck
38. Trees Filled with Crows	227
39. The Winter Sky	232
40. Feathered Denizens from the North	237
41. The Black-capped Chickadee: A Bird in the Hand	241

A P P E N D I C E S

1. Natural History and Conservation Organizations	246
2. A Long Island Naturalist's Bookshelf	248
3. Scientific Names	250
4. Natural Areas	256

I N D I C E S

Species	259
Places	267